Truth (Read Proverbs 6:6-8)

"Go to the ant, O sluggard;
consider her ways, and be wise.
Without having any chief,
officer, or ruler,
she prepares her bread in summer
and gathers her food in harvest."

Equipping (Discussion questions)

1. What does the proverb say that makes the ant stand out? She is hard-working.
2. What does "without having any chief, officer, or ruler" mean? Ants do not have to be told to work hard.
3. Who is the author addressing? Why? The Sluggard, because they have been too lazy.
4. Who is the ultimate hard worker? Christ, because he did what we could never do and defeated sin!

Accountability

1. In what ways does hard work honor God?
2. Talk about something you've worked hard in that makes you proud.
3. What are some lazy areas of your life that you can work on to be more responsible this week?

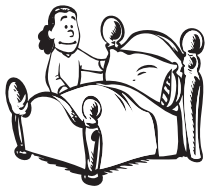

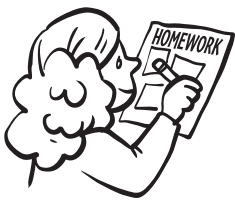

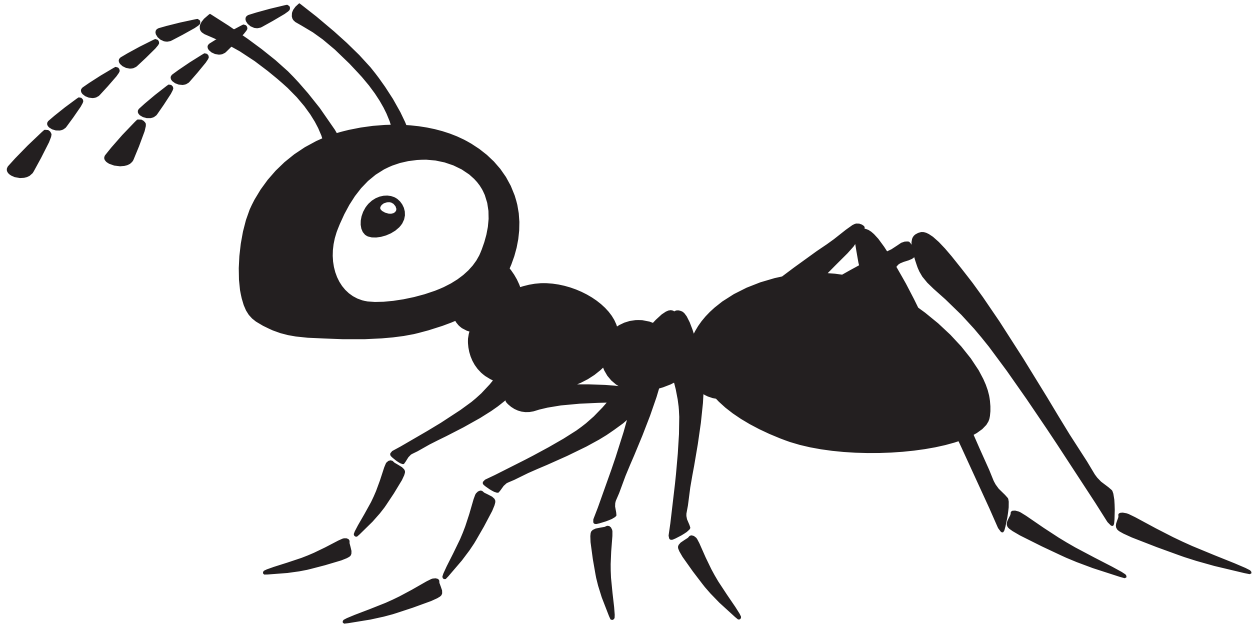

Mission

1. What is a way you can serve others by working hard?
2. Can you think of an older person who works really hard to share the good news of Jesus with others? How can we pray for that person today?

Supplication

1. Do you have any prayer requests?
2. Read and pray through 1 Corinthians 15:58 together!
"Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain."

"Go to the ant, O
 sluggard;"

"Consider her ways, and be wise. Without having any chief, officer, or ruler, she prepares her bread in summer and gathers her food in harvest."
